In this PSHE Unit, we shall use games, scenarios, questions and information to explore different relationships. We shall consider friendship and how to make new friends. We will begin to learn about marriage, religious and civil wedding ceremonies.

We will explore how families are characterised by love and care.

Key Learning

- To recognise that there are different types of relationships.
- To identify the strategies to build positive friendships and how friendship can support wellbeing.
- To explore how friendships can change and the benefits of having different types of friends.
- To recognise and respect that there are different family structures

Key Questions:

- What makes a good friend?
- What are the qualities that you look for in a friend?
- How do you make new friends?
- What does the word 'partner' mean?
- What does the word 'marriage' mean?

Ground rules

1. We will listen to each other.
2. We won't make fun of anyone.
3. You can 'pass' when answering a question.
4. We will not discuss our personal lives or use names
5. We know we can talk to our teacher or another adult in school if we want to talk or need help.
