

Mickleover Primary School – PSHE Knowledge Organiser

Title: Relationships

Year Group: 3

Term: Spring 2

Vocabulary you will know...

Relationships	The state of being related or connected
friendships	A person that someone likes or knows
fairness	Giving a person what they need or deserve
Family structures	The combination of relatives that make a family
secrets	Something kept, or planned to be kept from others
Risks	Possibility of loss, injury or harm
Jealousy	Afraid of losing someone’s love or attention to another person
support	Giving help or encouragement to someone who needs it
love	Strong feelings of affection for another person or thing
honesty	To be truthful
insults	To speak to or treat without respect and in a way that hurts feelings
control	To have power and run a situation a certain way
respect	Acting in a way that shows you are about a person’s feelings and well-being
power	To have control over others
compromise	Agreeing that each side will change or give up some demands

Key Learning

Recognising that there are different types of relationships.

Recognising the different ways people care for each other.

Recognising and respecting that there are different family structures.

Recognising the characteristics of healthy family life.

Identifying the strategies to build positive friendships and how friendship can support wellbeing.

Identifying what constitutes a positive healthy friendship.

Comparing the difference between healthy/unhealthy friendships.

Understanding the benefits of having different types of friends.

Recognising the risks associated with keeping a secret.

Key Questions

- What does the word ‘relationships’ mean?
- How should we be treated in a healthy friendship/relationship?
- What do relationships need to grow successfully?
- What is the opposite of a healthy relationship?
- How can kindness support well-being?
- What is a family tree?
- What does it mean to be loving and caring?
- Why is it good to have different types of friends?
- Why is compromise and problem solving an important skill in friendships?
- Do we have to keep promises or secrets if someone says so?
- When should we tell someone?
- Who could we tell?
- Will we get into trouble if we tell?

Texts and Links

